

Training session “Risk Management & Contractual Practices”

29 September 2016

Venue: Hotel Yak & Yeti

Durbar Marg, Kathmandu 44600 - Nepal

Objective: To provide an introduction to risk management process with a general overview of the contractual practices.

Programme

Thursday, 29 September 2016

Session 1: Risk management concepts (H. Wagner)

- 09:00 – 09:15: Welcome & Opening
- 09:15 – 10:00: Specificities of subsurface construction projects, main risks; roles and expectations of the key players
- 10:00 – 10:45: Introduction to risk management concepts
- 10:45 – 11:15: Coffee break
- 11:15 – 12:00: Site investigation process & responsibilities – Considerations about uncertainties geotechnical reports
- 12:00 – 12:30: Hazard identification & risks registers in the design process
- 12:30 – 13:00: Discussion
- 13:00 – 14:00: Lunch

Session 2: Contractual aspects (D. Brox)

- 14:00 – 14:45: Project delivery methods (design/bid/build; design/build;...), responsibilities & consequences
- 14:45 – 15:30: Contractual documentation, types of contracts, tendering & contract award
- 15:30 – 16:00: Coffee break
- 16:00 – 16:45: Construction contract & scheduling management during construction – organisation & responsibilities
- 16:45 – 17:30: Case studies: examples of construction design contracts & lessons learned
- 17:30 – 18:00: Questions & closing